

PROTECTION ADULT HORSEBACK RIDERS AS OF THE YEAR THEY WILL BE AT OR ABOVE THE AGE OF 19 IN 2018

AWARE CHOISE TO OMIT CAP OBLIGATION

Equestrian sport is a hazardous sport. Horseback riding and participating shows inevitable will bring risks.

Horseback riding without a safety cap (CE/EN 1384) increase these risks. Horseback riding without a safety cap increases the chance on serious permanent injury or even worse.

The NQHA advises all adult horseback riders to wear a safety cap. Wearing a safety cap is mandatory for AQHA/NQHA shows

The NQHA excludes all responsibility for all injury and claims caused by horseback riding without a safety cap.

NOT WEARING A SAFETY CAP IS THE FULL RESPONSIBILITY OF THE HORSEBACK RIDER

The signatory declares hereby to be aware of the risks participating this show and not wearing a safety cap.

The signatory accepts that the NQHA is excluded for any responsibility in the broadest sense.
